Foreign Language Proficiency Exam Proctor Information 2019-2020

Moody Bible Institute students are able to take a language proficiency exam on site in the Office of Academic Records through Brigham Young University. The Foreign Language Achievement Testing Service (FLATS) provides students the opportunity to receive up to 12 semester hours of pass/fail university credit by examination. The entire testing process, i.e., student registration, payment for the testing fee, test administration, and results reporting will occur online.

You can register at <https://flats.byu.edu/signupall.php?x=8>. For registration related questions, call (801) 422-3512. You must fill out all sections of the registration form in order for Moody to receive your official test results.
