

Release of Liability

REQUIRED for all international internships

I _____ (full name) assume any and all responsibility for risk and liability during the international trip to _____ (international location) for the purpose of fulfilling my Moody Theological Seminary (“MTS”) Field Education requirements. I release Moody Bible Institute and all departments of the institution from any responsibility connected with incidents that might occur during the internship placement (including but not limited to mugging, property vandalism, hostage situations/ abductions, physical assaults, coup attempts, and situations of political unrest).

I knowingly take on the costs and responsibility for all insurance matters that apply to international travelers and will not hold Moody Bible Institute responsible for any of these arrangements or financial obligations.

In giving approval to the internship site, MTS makes no representations or warranties, with the sole exception of the existence of the internship as a valid legal entity. It is the sole responsibility of the intern to confirm that the internship site is safe and spiritually valuable place to work.

I acknowledge that I have read the recommendations for international travel outlined by the Field Education Handbook. I choose to take this international placement because I believe the experience will be educationally beneficial and will assist me in future ministry opportunities. I will take on all other obligations, fees, and research necessary to working outside the United States of America in a way that demonstrates integrity and responsibility.
